

NATIONAL ARBITRATION
FORUM

January 22, 2002

David A. Einhorn
Anderson, Kill & Olick, P.C.
1251 Avenue of the Americas
New York, NY 10020-1182

RE:Savin Corporation v savinsucks.com
File Number: FA0201000103982

Dear Mr. Einhorn:

The above referenced domain name complaint has been received by the National Arbitration Forum and the above file number assigned. However, in reviewing your complaint the Forum has identified the following deficiencies:

- The Forum must receive a copy of your Complaint via email as a Microsoft Word attachment. Please email the same to mhultman@arb-forum.com.
- Your Complaint requests a three member panel, but does not provide the names of the Complainant's three choices. Please amend your Complaint to include this information.
- Your Complaint references the incorrect Respondent. Please amend your Complaint to references the Registrant of the disputed domain name as the Respondent.
- Your Complaint can only specify one remedy sought. Please amend your Complaint to specify either transfer of the domain name or cancellation of the domain name.
- Please attach a copy of the ICANN Policy to your Complaint.
- Please attach a Complaint Transmittal Sheet to your Complaint.

In order for the Forum to proceed with the arbitration of this case, you are required to rectify the deficiencies within 5 calendar days from the date of this notification, or the complaint will be withdrawn without prejudice as required by ICANN's UDRP Rule 4(b). Please note that you only need to send the revisions asked for above to the Forum via email to mhultman@arb-forum.com. Furthermore, a revised copy will also need to be sent to the Respondent. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Michelle Hultman
Case Coordinator

cc: Peter Sachs
savinsucks.com
76 Hawley Avenue
Milford, CT 06460