Thank you for contacting VeriSign and for your interest in acquiring a domain.

At this time, the domain you are interested in is in use by another Registrant. However, you can be the first in line to register this domain should the current Registrant choose not to renew!

Here's how:

Please go to: <http://www.networksolutions.com>

Type the domain that you would like to register, and click, "Back order it now". Follow the simple online instructions, and your request can be fulfilled in the order it was received.

For more Frequently Asked Questions or more information regarding this unique service, click

<http://www.snapnames.com/>

to learn more.

Should you choose not to take advantage of services from SnapNames, you may alternatively:

1. Contact the current registrant.
2. Continue to check the availability of the domain name.

Some additional things you should be aware of concerning this matter:

- a) The expiration date that shows in WHOIS is not the date that a domain name becomes available to be registered by another party. There may be issues that are yet to be resolved between VeriSign, Inc./ Network Solutions and the registrant.
- b) It's possible the domain may be involved in a legal dispute.
- c) Please understand that for security reasons we cannot discuss any privileged domain information with third parties.
- d) If you make payment on the current registration, it will be renewed in the current registrant's name.

If this involves a trademark dispute please contact our Business Affairs Office at Phone: (703) 742-4884, FAX (703) 437-7685
Email: baoc@netsol.com or go to:

Thank you again for interest in registering a domain name, and for choosing VeriSign, Inc., as your domain Registrar.

Best regards,

>> I am trying to get updated information regarding a domain name. The WHOIS database has clearly not been updated to reflect accurately the domain name status. I know this because the domain name expiration date is 10/5/01, but the record for the domain name was last updated on the date the record was created: 10/5/00.
